TRADITIONAL BOYS' EDUCATION

Established in 1910, Glenwood High School is one of the premier boys' schools in South Africa, catering for 1200 pupils from Grade 8 to 12 from all across Africa. The Boarding Establishment, Gibson House, was established in 1935 and provides 250 boys with a unique, caring and structured environment.

OUR VISION

Glenwood is committed to educating for life in a changing society where nothing is beyond human endeavour. We strive for a quality education provided by highly professional and dedicated staff who pursue innovative techniques to encourage learning and to realise the potential of every boy. Innovation, Holism and Excellence are words which spring to mind when we think about our future.

"Nihil humani alienum."

"Humanity is our interest."
